CHAPTER 10: THE CRICKET STORY

THE CRICKET STORY

~Summary~

-by Ramachandra Guha

Ramachandra Guha traces the history, characteristics and evolution of cricket in the lesson 'The Cricket Story'. He says that cricket was a game that evolved 500 years ago but was recognised as a distinctive sport only towards the seventeenth century. Initially, the ball was rolled over in the ground and the batsman had to strike it with a bat that was curved towards the end. Later the ball was pitched in the air. The duration of a test match is long and can still end in a draw compared to other matches. Although the length of the pitch is determined as 22 yards, the dimensions of the stadium is not fixed as it can be oval or circular. The Laws of cricket were established by various cricket clubs like MCC, where umpires were appointed, three stumps were introduced. Unlike other games, most equipment in cricket is handmade. In India, cricket was first taken up as a sport by the Parsis. They had to go through various rivalries with the white officials regarding the gymkhanas but won in the end. In India, cricket is an emotion and people value and remember cricketers who have contributed to the Nation. Television is one of the best tools that has acted as a means to bring cricket closer to the audience and increase its global market.

~Conclusion~

Patrick's story shows how a person can achieve success by being hard-working and self-dependent. It is revealed at the end that the elf man was only a figment of Patrick's imagination. In reality, the transformation is caused by Patrick's own efforts. This answers the titular question "Who did Patrick's homework?" and teaches the value of self-help.

Question 2: Write two paragraphs describing a bus ride to watch a cricket match in a village. Use the following points. Add some of your own.

- two-hour journey by bus
- an old and crowded bus
- friendly passengers
- visit to a village fair where the match is to be played
- the match between two village teams
- makeshift stumps, rough pitch and a rubber ball
- the match was enjoyable, but the trip was tiring

Answer: Last weekend, I went on a trip to watch a cricket match in a village. It was a two-hour journey by bus. I was quite excited about the match. It was the first time I was going to be in the live audience. The bus was an old and crowded one but the passengers were friendly.

It was a visit to a village fair where the cricket match was to be played. The match was to be fought between two village teams. The accessories were makeshift stumps, rubber ball, bat, etc.

The pitch was quite rough. It was a great match. Both the teams played so well. We all enjoyed thoroughly. We returned by the night. The match was truly enjoyable, but the trip was tiring.
